

Writers Coach

Everyone has a story to tell. Our job at Writer's Coach (www.writerscoach.us) is to help you get yours in print.

Yes YOU CAN make money as a writer. If you are a speaker, consultant or teacher you know the value and prestige that comes with the title of "author." Regardless of your industry or employment status, YOU ARE a subject matter expert in some field. That knowledge and your experience (combined with a book) could lead to your next career change.

Want to learn the craft of writing in a relaxed, confident, and connected environment? Eddie's writing coaching services will give you a sense of power, peace, and excitement as you move toward a completed book. As Kindle and e-Book consultant, Eddie has helped writers place manuscripts with both traditional publishing houses and with emerging Print-On-Demand presses.
